APGA Supports Confirmation for Commissioner LaFleur

Washington, D.C. (June 2, 2014) – Today, the American Public Gas Association sent letters to Chairman Landrieu (D-La.) and Ranking Member Murkowski (R-Alaska) of the Senate Committee on Energy and Natural Resources in support of the nomination of Commissioner Cheryl LaFleur to another term at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission. As communicated in the letter, Commissioner LaFleur has proven herself to be a champion of energy consumers, the intended beneficiaries of the Natural Gas Act and the Federal Power Act.

APGA is the national association of municipally and publicly-owned local distribution systems. There are about 1000 public gas systems serving more than 5 million customers. These public gas utilities are not-for-profit retail distribution entities that are owned by, and accountable to, the citizens they serve. They include municipal gas distribution systems, public utility districts, county districts, and other public agencies that have natural gas distribution facilities.
